ALMOST A TRAGEDY

In Fit of Melancholia Induced by Ill Health Travelling Man Attempted Suicide

AT THE ORTON ON SUNDAY

Sad Case of Mr. J. O. Vaughan, New York Representative of Big Firm —Injuries Will Probably Not Be Fatal—His Family.

Mr. J. Oscar Vaughan, 47 years of age, travelling salesman for The Spool Cotton Company, of New York, made a ghastly attempt upon his own life by slashing his throat three times with a razor in his room at The Orton hotel, in this city, Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. The deed was evidently that of a madman and was first discovered by a chambermaid of the hotel, who found Mr. Vaughan, attired in his night garments, wandering through the hallway on the third floor, his shirt crimson with blood from a violent hemorrhage from the ugly gash at his throat. Help was quickly secured and pending the arrival of Dr. D. W. Bulluck, who had been summoned from the office by telephone, friends among the hotel guests and attaches led the man back to his room. He talked incoherently and at once it was seen that his mind was unbalanced. At length he became violent and the services of six men were required to hold him on the bed. Dr. Bulluck came and administered a sedative after which the unfortunate man was conveyed to the James Walker Memorial Hospital. Last night he was reported from there as resting more easily and, while not yet out of danger, strong hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Mr. Vaughan travelled several Southern States, calling on the factory trade exclusively, and had been here every few months for several years calling on his trade. Last Friday he registered at The Orton, shook hands with his friends cordially and appeared in the best of spirits. He completed his business calls Saturday by noon and settled his bill with the intention of leaving on the 3:45 P. M. train for Charleston. He missed that train, however, and said he would go the following morning on the 6 A. M. train, retiring early and leaving a call with the hotel clerk for 5 o'clock. Sunday morning one of the bell boys called Mr. Vaughan and he replied but did not come down. At a quarter to 6 o'clock, Mr. Tom Shepard, the clerk, went up to the room in person and told Mr. Vaughan he had only 15 minutes in which to catch his train. Mr. Vaughan replied: "Oh, I wish you would go away and let me alone." Mr. Shepard naturally thought the travelling man had decided to wait until the afternoon train and returned to his duties at the desk.

The discovery of the rash deed followed about as outlined above between 10 and 11 o'clock. One of two razors which Mr. Vaughan carried in his grip had been used and was found lying on the bed by parties who first entered the room. The deed had evidently been committed in front of the mirror of the dresser, as blood was found on the cover beneath. From appearances in the room, the man had then lain down on the bed and the bloody razor had there dropped from his hand. Dr. Bulluck said the wound had been inflicted probably 30 minutes or more before he was found and the supposition is that after lying on the bed, his reason partially returned to him a moment and he felt that he must go out and find some one. He went around the hall some distance and had entered a travelling acquaintance's room before he was discovered by the maid. Then followed his transfer to the hospital. Dr. Bulluck and the hospital physicians doing all in their power to relieve the sufferings of the unfortunate stranger and to quiet him, physical strength having been necessary to restrain him.

Mr. Vaughan was reared in Lynchburg, Va., and married a prominent young lady of Atlanta, but for several years the family had resided in the little mountain town of Norcross, Ga., the family consisting of a wife and three daughters, the oldest being 16 or 18 years of age. Immediately after the tragic affair, Mrs. Vaughan was notified, by telegraph and she and a little daughter and Mr. H. V. Jones, also a travelling man and a friend of the family, arrived last night to be with the sufferer. Mr. Jones says Mr. Vaughan had not a care in the world; that his home life was beautiful; that he stood high with the large house which he represents and commands a very large salary. He can only account for the temporary aberration that led to the fearful deed by the fact that his friend was a great sufferer with kidney trouble and that his general health was impaired. In Wilmington he was highly esteemed; he was always dignified but unassuming, perfectly temperate and usually very cheerful in his disposition. Rev. Father C. Dennen, of this city, whom he met by accident in the lobby of The Orton the night before the affair, has called upon him frequently at the hospital and has done what he could for the stranger, Mrs. Vaughan being a devoted communicant of the Catholic church in her home town.

Six or eight months ago Mr. Vaughan suffered a similar attack of mental aberration in Greensboro, but it was not so pronounced as the present, and he went home, where he remained a short time and appeared to have fully recovered. He imagined at that time that he was being pursued or watched by some one and he sought refuge at home.

Last night at 11 o'clock Dr. Bulluck said that the patient was better. He has recovered consciousness and at intervals was rational. However, he has as yet no knowledge of where he is or what has happened. He recognized his wife and Mr. Jones when they called last night and Dr. Bulluck thinks the presence of Mrs. Vaughan will be a great benefit to him. He has not had to be forcibly restrained since yesterday at noon. While he is not yet out of danger, Dr. Bulluck says his chances are good. The wounds are at the throat, about three inches long down to the windpipe, severing the blood vessels and nerves in front. The three gashes are parallel and nearly in the same place. Either one of them to one side of the throat would have severed the jugular vein and proved fatal. The wounds, Dr. Bulluck says, are getting on remarkably well but the causes leading up to the rash act are yet problematical.

Mr. Estes Vaughan, a brother of the deceased will be here to-day from Lexington, Va., to be with the patient and Mrs. Vaughan to whom, with others of the family, the heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out in this, their trying ordeal.

CAPE FEAR WATER SUPPLY.

Government Will Assist in Making Experiments in Wilmington.

In response to requests from the business interests of Wilmington, N. C., plans have been made by the United States Geological Survey for the investigation of the artesian well supply in this vicinity. A bulletin issued by the survey Saturday says:

"In this rapidly growing city there is great need of an adequate supply of pure water for drinking purposes, and of a large quantity of water sufficiently pure for industrial use. The special attention of survey officials will be directed to the depth of the water bearing strata. The quantity and head of water which can be obtained, as well as its suitability for domestic purposes and use in homes and the industries.

"Situated as it is on Cape Fear river, Wilmington is the natural outlet for the rice interests of that region. In other parts of the South the production of rice has been immensely increased by the abundant water supply obtainable from artesian wells, and there seems to be no reason why the same success should not attend the use of artesian waters at Wilmington. The cost of sinking the wells is unimportant, when compared with the results obtained from the use of the increased supply of pure water.

"Wilmington, N. C., lies on the outer edge of the Atlantic coastal plain. The results obtained from drilling in New Jersey, Maryland and Georgia give the impression that an abundant water supply may also be obtained in the coastal plain deposits of southern North Carolina. The investigation will be conducted by Mr. M. L. Fuller of the United States Geological Survey, in co-operation with the geological survey of North Carolina."

Arrivals and Departures of Vessels—Schooner Off the Bar.

The British steamer Bloemfontein is expected from New York this morning to receive cargo of cotton from Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son.

The schooner Abbie Bowker, Capt. Nickerson, with cargo of cocoanuts from San Andreas to Philadelphia, was anchored off the bar Sunday on account of bad weather.

There were two arrivals of vessels Sunday. The schooner Wm. H. Davidson came from New York to C. D. Maffitt with cargo of salt for J. H. Southgate & Co., and the barque Aurora came from Liverpool to Heide & Co., for cargo of naval stores.

The Dutch steamer Barendrecht, 2,092 tons, Capt. Visser, sailed from Bremen August 20th, for Wilmington. The British steamers Dora, 1,106 tons, Capt. Goulding, and David Mainland, 1,201 tons, Capt. Clark, are chartered from Hamburg to Wilmington, the first named having sailed Sept. 3rd.

COMING OF EUGENIE BLAIR.

Advance In Seats Applies to Only Two Front Rows.

Eugenie Blair will be seen at the Academy Wednesday night in a revival of Isben's famous play, "A Doll's House." Miss Blair has for years made a careful study of the great Norwegian dramatist and intends devoting several seasons entirely to the presentation of his works. Miss Blair's "Nora" should prove a revelation to those who have only seen her in her recent impersonations of "Zaza" and "A Lady of Quality." The play will be carefully mounted with the aim of preserving the true Ibsen atmosphere by artists who have made a special study of the dramatist.

The only advance in prices for this magnificent attraction will be $1.50 for the first two rows of seats and the boxes down stairs. All other seats are $1.00.

Colored Preacher In Court.

Eli Lee, the negro arrested Saturday midnight by Constable Savage at the Angola Lumber mill, was arraigned before Justice Furlong yesterday on the dual charge of larceny from the person and assault with a deadly weapon. It will be remembered that Lee met a fellow laborer named Gee, who owed him 50 cents. Gee would not produce the coin to liquidate the indebtedness and Lee jumped on him and took all he had, the sum total of $3, and then stood him off with something like a butcher knife he carried in his pocket. It turns out that Lee is a colored parson, but Justice Furlong couldn't stand back for that and bound him to the higher court in bonds of $25 in each case. The defendant is represented by Walter P. Gafford, Esq.

Funeral of Mrs. Merritt.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Lucy C. Merritt, whose death occurred Saturday evening, was held from Bladen Street M. E. church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Rev. Geo. B. Webster, the pastor, assisted by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., officiating. A number of friends of the deceased and the family were in attendance to pay their respects to the good woman. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery, the pall-bearers having been Messrs. L. A. Bilbro, D. T. McCulloch, J. W. Fleet, Jno. T. Sholar, W. H. Barden and Bruce K. Taylor.

IN WILMINGTON SUNDAY

Plea For Co-operation of America and England to Civilize and Christianize the Orient—Lecture at Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

(Reported for The Star.)

Those who were fortunate enough to be present at St. James' church Sunday morning and evening had the rare opportunity of listening to two able and eloquent addresses from the Rev. Watarn Sakakibara, a native Japanese, who is now a deacon in the Episcopal church, and who on his elevation to the Priesthood, will return to preach Christianity to his wonderful people. In the morning he took up the religious condition of Japan, describing the Buddhist and the Shintoist religions and showed that as the Japanese were becoming educated and delved into science and philosophy, they of necessity put aside superstition, leaving the vast bulk of the people agnostics. As the Western people, as a whole, are probably not familiar with these religions, it may be interesting to give even a snort synopsis of his description of Buddhism and Shintoism. Buddha was a Philosopher, who lived about three thousand years ago in India. He saw the moral degradation of the people, and it was his aim to give them a code for the better ordering of their lives. He taught that every product of the human mind was an illusion and that nothing was in reality permanent. He showed how in many respects Budda's idea of ethics was identical with the Christian religion of to-day. But, as years went by, the ignorant people lost sight of all the teachings and worshipped Buddha himself and lastly images of Buddha, thus becoming idolaters. The Shintoists believe first in the deification of the Imperial family and ancestor worship. They have gods for all the wonders of nature—some eight hundred thousand altogether—Mr. Sakahibara then told of his own life and conversion, with a very positive apology for personalities, which was of absorbing interest. His ancestors for ten generations had been Shinto priests and his Father still is, and he was brought up with the knowledge that he, too, must fill this hereditary office, and at the very early age of fourteen really did become an assistant to his Father. But, about this time Japan was shaking off the yoke of ignorance and was becoming alive to the importance of education. His companions were fitting themselves for future usefulness as statesmen, as diplomats or as soldiers and he soon saw the utter futility of his following in the paths of his ancestors, and begged to be allowed to go to college better to prepare himself to cope with modern conditions. He went to college in his native country, but thinking for himself he realized the lack of a something, he could not fathom what, and had a spirit of "The unrest of the weary world," and was not at peace within himself. Finally, a book fell into his hands through the instrumentality of his English tutor. This book contained a quotation which attracted his attention to Christianity and he decided to pursue his studies in "free America." Through much persuasion and overcoming of parental and family objection he was permitted to come to America to complete his education, and especially to investigate the claims of Christianity. He found peace at last in the Christ, and here he broke into a most eloquent tribute to the Saviour and a plea to all Christians to realize and send forth the knowledge of His love.

At the University of the South, at Sewanee, he studied in the academic department and graduated in the theological.

His sermon was replete with interest and his sincerity was so apparent that one could but admire the strength of his purpose, and the purity of a life begun under heathen influence, and in the midst of such unfavorable surroundings.

In the evening Mr. Sakakibara devoted himself to the future mission of Japan. He proved that in the recent war with Russia, Japan was the friend of humanity, even the friends of the Russians as against Russia. He said that she was in favor of liberty and justice and a protector of the people as against the bureaucrats. He showed that as in the war with China, Japan had acted in the interest of progress, commercialism and industry, and that if she could secure the co-operation of America and England, would be the factor in the civilization of the Orient. He spoke of the "Yellow Peril," stating that this was entirely the result of ignorance of the true conditions. Finally, and with deep feeling, he said, that the only need of Japan was the promulgation of Christianity, and that with Japan under this influence the balance of Asia would ultimately follow. He referred to America as now the greatest nation on earth, and that with Japan Christianized these two countries, the one in the East the other in the West, would keep the world at peace forevermore.

As the result of the morning sermon at St. James, the church was well filled at night. Last night a large number of men heard the speaker at the Y. M. C. A., where, in spite of being decidely unwell, he held the interest of every person. The enlightening, broadening and uplifting influence of these addresses was something the community should be grateful for. Those who could not come to any of them were indeed unfortunate, and those who could, and did not, if there were any such, we would commend a famous Senator's lines on opportunity voluntarily neglected. Mr. Sakakibara leaves to-night for New York to pursue his studies at the General Theological Seminary and Columbia University.

ARCHITECT BONITZ'S SUCCESS.

Plans for Scotland Hospital at Laurinburg, N. C., Accepted.

Architect H. E. Bonitz was advised last night by long distance telephone that his plans had been accepted in competition with architects from Charlotte and Greensboro for the new Scotland Hospital to be erected at Laurinburg, N. C. Mr. Bonitz naturally feels much elated over the acceptance of his plans as it is his third or fourth success in competition for large buildings very recently, other notable incidents having been the I. O. O. F. Temple, in Goldsboro, and the Bank of Enfield, at Enfield, N. C.

Plans for the Scotland Hospital call for a two-story and basement press orick structure, with all modern conveniences. It will be fitted with all modern apartments and appliances necessary to an up-to-date hospital service, the features being the operating room and a sun parlor.

Rather Serious Affray.

Eugene Harris and Joe Kirkham, well known young white men in the southern part of the city, appeared before Justice Bornemann yesterday and wanted to "pay up" as a penalty for a little pugilistic encounter which they indulged in Saturday night in the neighborhood of Sixth and Castle streets. However, Kirkham's face gave evidence of an assault in which serious injury had been done and Harris said Kirkham had thrown a knife at him. Justice Bornemann held that the affray was too serious for a submission and recognized the young men to appear before him today at noon for a more thorough investigation.

The Academy Last Night.

"Reuben in New York," presented by Henry F. Willard at the Academy of Music last night, did not rank with the best of the high-class farce comedies that come this way once in a while, but the production was a decided improvement on the initial attraction here last week. The company is new and will improve as the season progresses.

Larceny of Timber.

Constable Savage and Policeman W. R. Appleberry yesterday landed in jail Chas. Robinson and Tyson Brower, well known colored rivermen, charged with the larceny of timber on the river. The warrant was sworn out by County Treasurer H. McL. Green, a dealer in timber. The case is set for trial before Justice John J. Furlong at noon to-day.

Back From European Trip.

Mr. Isaac J. Bear, of Sam'l Bear, Sr. & Sons, arrived last night from a three months' tour abroad. He visited all points of interest in the old country and came back, looking well indeed. He arrived in New York last Thursday and reached Wilmington yesterday, being given the glad hand by numerous friends here.

Tuesday Morning. Sept. 19

UNREASONABLE CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTION.

As the national campaign was concluding last year, President Roosevelt affected to be exceedingly indignant when Judge Alton Brooks Parker, the Democratic nominee, charged openly and vehemently that the Republican national committee was holding up the trusts and coporations for big sluices of money to carry the election. We do not suppose many people have forgotten the angry outburst of the President when he rushed into print and as good as declared anybody was a liar who made such a charge. All the time people who had a thimble full of brains beleived, if they really did not know that Judge Parker was stating the absolute truth.

Didn't President Roosevelt know that Judge Parker was proclaiming a fact? It is claimed that the President was not taken into the confidence of his committee about the funds and where they came from but we have never yet heard Mr. Roosevelt charged with being deficient in perceptive faculties. It may be true that the President was not taken into the confidence of his committee and it may be true that he didn't want to be taken into their confidence to any great extent.

It is stated in Washington that the revelation that the New York Life Insurance Company contfibuted $48,752.50 to Roosevelt's campaign fund causes no surprise at the national capital. The Washington correspondent of the Raleigh Post, in Sunday's paper, so states and goes on to say that "it has been a well known fact that not only the large insurance companies but many of the corporations popularly known as trusts, are regular contributors to Republican campaign funds." The fact is if the President did not know it to be a fact, he certainly overlooked the cartoons in the McKinley campaign in which Mark Hanna was successfully "frying the fat" out of the millionaire corporations.

Before Judge Parker was ever heard of, it has been a notorious fact that the corporations have stood by the Republican party and that the Republican party stands by the corporations and trusts. It has not been very long since it leaked out that the Beef Trust, in spite of the fact that it was being proceeded against by the administration, like the "good trust" that it was, nevertheless went right along and made its usual contribution to the Republican campaign fund. It was not very much afraid of the Republican party and its confidence wasn't misplaced either. Whatever may be our opinions about as either Democrats or Republicans, patriotic Americans can hardly fail to heartily agree with the New York Times, that fearless and upright independent paper, when it makes this comment on the revelation about the New York Life's extravagant campaign contribution:

"Not only the holders of life insurance policies but the people of the United States and the cause of public morality are under obligations to the insurance investigating committee for disclosing the fact that the New York Life Insurance Company contributed $48,702.50 to the Republican campaign fund last year. If no other or further information about the life insurance business were elgicited by the Armstrong committe, the ordering of the inquiry would be fully justified by the disclosure of this contribution to the Roosevelt campaign fund made by the directors of the New York Life Insurance Company because they professed to be afraid of the St. Louis platform. Of course, everybody knows that the St. Louis platform was not in question. Judge Parker was in every conceivable respect at least as safe and sane as Mr. Roosevelt. The contribution was altogether partisan, and in no respect made as a measure of prudence and safety. The trust funds cared for by the directors of life insurance companies would not have been endangered by the election of Alton B. Parker to the Presidency.

"It is worth while to have an insurance investigation, we say, merely to uncover this transaction. There was a noble show of virtuous anger by candidate and chairman because of the charge that the Republican National Committee was collecting a great sum of money for Mr. Roosevelt's campaign. Now we have the proof, and proof in these matters is so very hard to get at that memory will be searched in vain, we think, for any similar revelation. If the New York Life Insurance Company with four hundred millions of assets felt called upon to contribute $50,000 to the defense fund, what would be the total for the country? The railroads of the United States have fifteen billions of assets, and the principal manufacturing corporations have ten billions of share capital. Had they contributed in the ratio established by the conservative directors of the New York Life, Mr. Cortelyou would have had the handling of $3,125,000 from these corporate sources alone. The apprehensions of bankers and private capitalists would have yielded him enough more to round out a full $5,000,000.

"Five millions is enough to buy the Presidency. It is not in accordance with the spirit of our institutions or with the will of our people that the Presidency should be brought, or that it should ever be within the reach of buyers. Mr. Perkins perfectly frank testimony will go very far to make it unpurchasable. The agitation already begun to compel campaign committees to publish the truthful list of their contributions, with names, under pain of disqualification for their candidate, will receive a much greater impulse from the discovery of this contribution of $48,702.50, out of the sacred fund belonging to widows and orphans, to secure a Republican victory."

CURRENT COMMENT.

—One of the officials sent from Washington to North Carolina says that "conditions are terrible" in the Federal service in North Carolina. He is an expert and ought to know. His diagnosis may safely be put down as the right one.—Greensboro Telegram.

—Champ Clark calls the world to witness that "the South furnishes the brains and decency of the Democratic party." A disproportionately large share of the "brains and decency" would be nearer the truth and more courteous to our friends of the North and West.—Macon Telegraph.

—Los Angeles has a chamber of commerce with two thousand members, making a total income of twenty-four thousand dollars a year. The money is used directly or indirectly in advertising the county. Such a commercial body is needed in every progressive town.—Savannah Press.

—The proverbial dignity of the United States Senate is scheduled to receive a very rude and cruel jar if Gov. Vardaman of Mississippi and Gov. Jeff Davis of Arkansas are elected to membership in that august body. When these gentlemen, assisted by Messrs. La Follette, Tillman, and Foraker, get their feelings roused up over something there will be pyrotechnics to spare.—Dallas News.

—So Miss Nan is married again—married to the gentleman to whom she was wife and from whom she was divorced before her adventure with the late Caesar Young, Esq. It is not likely to be for long, though it is no use to prophecy evil. Miss Nan is a citizen. It is customary and proper upon wedding occasions to congratulate somebody and in this case the groom is to be congratulated—upon his nerve.—Charlotte Observer.

—We were about to say that Governor Heyward was lucky in not accompanying Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, on his Northern tour, in view of the automobile wreck in which the latter narrowly escaped seriously injury. The News and Courier, however, suggests another idea. It says: "If a sane, safe and sound man, such as Governor Heyward, had been with Governor Glenn, he would not have gotten into that 'devil car' in Massachusetts. There are other equally good reasons why the governor of the rural State of North Carolina should never have left home without the governor of South Carolina in attendance to keep watch and ward and minister to his wants."—Columbia Record.

—A smart Mississippi negro has found a way to turn the prejudice of white men against his race to financial account. The plan of this man, as reported by the United States Civil Service Commission, is to take civil service examinations for clerkships in the Postoffices of various small cities. Upon receiving an appointment he goes to the town, where of course he finds an intense opposition among the whites to his employment. He suavely bows to the will of his white neighbors, protests that he accepted the place under a misunderstanding, and that he would not think of trying to remain where his presence would be so offensive to the superior race, but he has been put to considerable expense, and can ill-afford to lose the money. Of course the whites promptly make up a purse for such a polite and considerate negro, and he goes on to another town to repeat the trick.

TWINKLINGS.

—Hook—"I believe in making light of my troubles." Nye—"If I have a trouble I keep it dark."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

—"Papa, what's a man who runs an auto called?" "It depends on whether he is being called by his employer or by the man he has just missed."—Houston Post.

—A Reservation—"But," persisted the bridegroom in their little quarrel, "you promised to love, honor and obey me." Maybe I did," replied the bride, "but I had my fingers crossed."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—Kid Lady—Have you no trade? The Hobo—Yes, ma'am; but dey ain't nothin' doin' in my line just now. Kind Lady—What is your line? The Hobo—Peddlin' earmuffs, ma'am.—Chicago Daily News.

—"Pa!" "Well, what is it now?" "My teacher says I'm a natural born fool." "Your teacher is a sensible woman, and that's what I've always said. I suppose she had to explain to you what a natural born fool was." "Yes, pa. She said it was hereditary."—Cleveland Leader.

—Suitor—Beg pardon for interrupting, but—I—er—have just come—er—that is, I have just been speaking to your daughter, and she referred me to you. Old Gentleman—Gee, crickets! I wonder if that girl thinks I am made of money. You are about the fortieth bill collector she has sent in to-day. If she doesn't marry pretty soon, I'll be bankrupt.—New York Weekly.

—"Why do you put that young man forward so prominently?" asked the politician. "Do you think he is qualified to be a leader in public affairs?" "No," answered Senator Sorghum, "Some times a man goes to the front under the impression that he is a leader, when he is merely a cowcatcher, to keep the track clear and receive the bumps."—Washington Star

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, September 18.—The market was quiet with fluctuations irregular and comparatively narrow. A steady forenoon was followed by an easier tone in the later trading and the market closed barely steady at an advance of 2 points to a decline of 2 points. Sales were estimted at only 200,000 bales. The opening was steady, unchanged to 6 points higher in response to higher cables and during the early session the gain was increased to a matter of 6 to 9 points on the active months as a result of covering and a little fresh demand for long account inspired by less favorable crop reports. A private estimate was issued placing the condition of the crop at 67 per cent., or about 3 per cent. under the estimate of the same authority at the end of August, and telegraphic advices from the South were of a less favorable average, although the weather map showed generally good conditions for picking and marketing. Realizing checked the advance and in the afternoon the market turned easier under a renewal of local bear pressure and liquidation, encouraged by the absence of aggressive bull support, and the relative heariness of October. The close was within a point of the lowest. Southern spot markets were generally unchanged.

Spot closed unchanged. Middling uplands, 10.75; middling gulf, 11.00; sales 345 bales.

Futures opened steady. September 10.30 bid; October, 10.30; December, 10.39; January, 10.43; February offered, 10.46; March. 10.51; May, 10.57; June, 10.60.

CHICAGO MARKET.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Enormous shipments of wheat from Black Sea ports had a weakening effect today on the wheat market here. Heavy rains in the American Northwest helped offset, however, the effect of the news from Russia. At the close wheat for December delivery was off only 1-8c. Corn is down 1-2. Oats shows a loss of 1-4@3-8. Provisions are practically unchanged.

The leading futures ranged as follows:

IN A CANNIBAL CAMP.

Banquet Prepared From the Victims of Savage Warfare.

Returned to their old home after twenty years spent in educating natives of darkest Africa in the great benefits to be gained from Christianity, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Mead, who are visiting with Dr. Babbitt, tell strange tales of cannibals and struggles in savage Africa that drive fear into the hearts of the uninitiated.

Mr. Mead said: "In Malange, a part of Angola, Africa, we worked among the Kimbundu tribe, one of the most intelligent of the African races. About a hundred miles north of the main village of the Kimbundus is a large cannibal camp, at which one of the men in my party had an experience he does not care to repeat.

"The man had been sent with presents to the chief of the cannibal tribe. Now, if a cannibal chief does not accept a gift it is time for the gift giver to beware. Our man's gift of cloth was refused.

"On leaving the chief's hut our man noticed a number of human heads on poles and came across a big pot in which was simmering a stew. To his horror he found it contained human hands, shinbones and other parts of the body.

"A little cannibal girl volunteered the cheerful information that the stew was made of victims of a war and that unless our man took care he would flavor the stew for the morrow.

"At that our man thought out a plan. He went to the chief and told him that, seeing he was at war with a tribe, he would need powder and that if the chief would allow him to go back to the village he would furnish his men with powder. The chief fell into the trap and allowed the man to escape.

"Our man got his comrades together and told them their lives depended upon reaching their homes as soon as possible. Needless to say they escaped, pursued by a band of cannibals, who soon gave up the chase.

"It is only during times of war that the cannibals eat human flesh. At other times they are like any other savage people."—Boston Journal.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—The Daughters of the Confederacy at Oxford held a successful bazaar last Thursday night and realized a handsome sum for a monument to the Confederate dead.

—The ninth annual convention of the North Carolina division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet in Morganton, N. C., October, 1905, at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

—The total number of students registered at the University so far is 605, of which number 585 are there, and 20 at the medical school in Raleigh. This enrollment breaks all previous records, and the University is justly proud of it.

—The corner-stone of a Lutheran college for negro boys and girls was laid at Greensboro on Sunday. Charlotte also, has a Lutheran college for negroes. There will be a training and industrial department in connection with the Greensboro college.

—A correspondent writes from Laurinburg: "The Daughters of the Confederacy gave an ice cream supper at Field's Hall, the object being to raise money with which to erect a monument at this place. They were very successful in their efforts. No efforts from now on are to be spared in collecting enough money to erect a nice monument."

—A dispatch from Lexington says: "To-day Sheriff Dorsett received a telegram from the State Hospital, at Morganton, refusing to admit Mrs. Joicy Clodfelter, who is dangerously insanse and in jail here. This is the second second applicant to be refused admission from here in the last few days. It seems there should be some place for these unfortunate people so that a respectable white woman may not have to be thrown in jail with negro criminals. In the interest of humanity, either the State or county authorities ought to make provision."

—Three important corporations were chartered Saturday by the secretary of State—a big life insurance company for Fayetteville a bank for warrenton and a country club for Flat Rock in Henderson county. The insurance company is the Southern Life Insurance Co., of Fayetteville. The capital is $50,000 subscribed and $500,000 authorized to do a life, health and accident insurance business on the stock plan, also contract to pay annuities, etc. There are a great number of incorporators and subscribers to stock, citizens of Fayetteville and Cumberland county, generally.

—The Fall term of Peace Institute opened with a fine attendance. After the devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. R. F. Bumpas, short talks were made by Mr. J. R. Young and Rev. A. H. Moment. All the members of the faculty were present, including three additions made this year: Mrs. Dungan, of New York, in the piano department; Miss Sexsmith, of Syracuse University, in mathematics, and Miss Pollard, of Emerson College, in expression. The students are arriving on every train and the school promises to be up to the highest standard in numbers and efficiency.

—The Winston Sentinel suggests to the Board of Trade that it look into the matter and make an effort to secure the internal revenue office for that city. The paper says editorially: "If the collector's office is to be removed it should be brought to Winston-Salem. This city not only pays more internal revenue tax than any other city in this district, but it pays more than all combined. Is there any reason, in view of these facts, why Winston-Salem should not have the collector's office? Is there any other town that has as good a claim to it? Not only does this place pay more internal tax than the other towns in this district, but it is easily accessible and no better location for the office could be found."

—Charlotte Observer: "Recorder F. M. Shannonhouse, whose fight on drug stores for alleged violations of the Watts law, his unceasing look-out for blind tigers and sellers of intoxicating drinks of any sort, have attracted much attention and comment, yesterday morning began a crusade on some of the physicians of the city, who in his opinion, are issuing too many prescriptions for whiskey. The recorder stated that the fact that four doctors issue more prescriptions for liquor than all the other 35 to 40 in the city and that most of the prescriptions are issued Saturday afternoons and to working people, show that something is radically wrong. The recorder plainly stated that he was going to investigate the matter thoroughly and hinted that prosecutions might follow."

—The Observer says: "Charlotte is to have a wrestling match of the most approved sort. A number of local sportsmen met yesterday morning and organized "The Charlotte Athletic Association," a stock company. Prof. Ono, the famous Jap jiu-jitsu westler, now at Asheville, will try the Terrible Turk a fall here next Friday night, either in the Academy of Music or at the park. A large purse has been pledged and one of the greatest wrestling feats ever pulled off in the South in being arranged. A member of the newly organized association went to Asheville yesterday afternoon to confer with the manager of Prof. Ono and to make final arrangements. The Terrible Turk is in New York and has been communicated with and will be brought here to meet the hefty foreigner."

—Quite a sad death occurred at Elkin Saturday morning at 3 o'clock. Mrs. B. F. Estes, who lives in West Elkin, arose from her bed at 2:30 for the purpose of getting a drink of water, and by mistake got a glass that contained carbolic acid, into which she poured some water, then drinking it. She immediately called her husband, who, realizing what she had done, hastily summoned a physician, but the deadly poison had done its work and death resulted in less than 40 minutes. The tragedy was purely accidental. Mrs. Estes procured the carbolic acid from the drug store about three weeks ago and kept it in a glass tumbler on the mantel in her bedroom as a disinfectant. Yesterday, her sister, while dusting the furniture in the room, placed the glass on the table and forgot to remove it. Thus in the dark the fatal mistake occurred.

—The Charlotte Observer's correspondent learns from a very reliable source, of an out-of-town capitalist who is very much interested in building a large cotton mill at Maxton, if a good site can be had and some stock taken by Maxton people. This, the correspondent is confident, can be arranged, as there have been several land owners who have offered sites for this purpose, gratis, and this means a mill in the near future. One of the locations mentioned above is adjacent to the Seaboard and Atlantic Coast Line tracks, which would make shipping easy over either line.——Mr. J. W. Carter is moving into his new store, next door to his new store, next door to his present quarters. In his new building he will keep hardware and furniture, putting in clothing on the second floor of his old store and a first-class line of dry goods on the first. Mr. Carter is one of Maxton's most successful merchants and is putting up a block of modern business houses.

F. I. L. I. Anniversary.

The Fayetteville Observer of yesterday afternoon says: "The annual target practice of the F. I. L. I. battalion, postponed until a suitable day from the 23rd of August, was held at Cross Creek yesterday. The following won prizes: Capt. C. B. Ledbetter, of the "grays," won 1st prize and the Nott medal on a score of 22. Lieut. E. R. MacKethan, Co. F, 2nd prize, score 21. Private MacNeill, of the "grays" won 3d prize, score 20. Major J. G. Hollingsworth won prize for veterans and reserve corps on score of 21. Private F. D. Williams of the "grays" and Private J. M. Tomlinson, Co. F., tied on a score of 19 for "prize to one who had never won a prize." Finally won on determination of the tie by Private Williams. The battalion, in command of Maj. Vann, was afterwards marched to the Hotel LaFayette, where Mr. C. J. Cooper, in a very eloquent address, delivered the prizes.

GET INSIDE.

Your Friends and Neighbors in Wilmington Will Show You How.

Rubbing the back won't cure backache.

A liniment may relieve, but can't cure.

Backache comes from the inside—from the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills get inside—They cure sick kidneys.

Here is Wilmington proof that this is so:

R. F. Rowan, clerk with L. W. Davis' Clothing House, residing on Castle street between Sixth and Seventh, says: "I strained myself lifting a heavy box, and suffered great pain across my back for a long time. I used plasters and liniments but they did me no good. I could hardly stand up straight, my back was so weak. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised Cor. Nutt and Grace streets. my's drug store and got a box. I felt better the next day and continued using them according to directions and my back regained its old strength. I was simply surprised at the result I will gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills every time for backache."

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." R. R. Bellamy, druggist, sells and guarantees them, at 50c a bottle. **

Like Finding Money.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation, better act promtly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Special Trial Offer

THE MORNING STAR

At Reduced Rates

To New Subscribers

For the next sixty days will mail THE MORNING STAR to subscribers outside the city at the following reduced rates:

FOR ONE YEAR $4.00
FOR SIX MONTHS $2.00

Positively, no subscription will be taken at the reduced rates for a period less than six months. For one month the price will be, as heretofore, $1.25 for three months; or, fifty cents for one month.

This offer, as will be noted, is for a limited period only, and is made for the purpose of giving those who appreciate the value of a daily newspaper an opportunity to read the STAR for six months, or more, at a cost of about one and a quarter cents per copy, and then determine whether or not they will continue their subscription at the regular price.

No name will be entered on our books under this offer unless the order is accompanied with the cash.

While this proposition is made primarily to secure new subscribers, old subscribers outside the city may avail themselves of its advantages at the reduced rate provided they pay all arrearages and for not less than six months in advance.

On account of the heavy expense attached to our city circulation department this offer does not apply to city subscribers.

MURDERED WOMAN IS AUGUSTA PLEIFFER

Horrible Murder In New York May Be Unraveled—Detectives On Trail of Brute.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Sept. 18,—The young woman who was on Saturday found mysteriously murdered, after being criminally assaulted, under the "Haunted Oak" on the Pelham road, was Miss Gussie Pfeiffer, an embroidery worker, whose family lived only 500 feet from the place where the body was found. The identification was made positively Sunday afternoon. It was a plain case of assault. The girl was smothered. The circumstances are such that she must have been killed near the spot probably while on her way home from her boarding place to get some clothes.

The police have detained as witnesses John Harnett and a Mrs. Donovan, who live near the place where the body was found, together with five boys. Mrs. Donovan, who is also known under several other names, has lived with Harnett up to a few months ago, when one Joe Girard came along and took her away from him. Girard could not be found last night.

A large force of detectives were at work today searchinfi for Girard, for whose arrest a warrant has been issued in connection with the murder of Augusta Pfeiffer, near the Pelham road, West Chester, on Wednesday night. Several reports of the man's movements since Wednesday have been received and the detectives hope to find him within 24 hours. Girard's home is said to be Nashua, N. H.

Girard is a truck driver and is a powerful man. He boarded with Mrs. Julia R. Mahon on the Pelham road, not far from the place where Miss Pfeiffer's body was found. The police asert that they found a quantity of the man's clothing in the sink in Mrs. Mahon's kitchen and that she told them that Girard had changed all his garments except his underclothes on Thursday. She had found blood stains on the clothes, she said, but he offered no explanation as to how they came there. Coroner O'Gorman said that he believed the young woman lay alive in the woods for two days after the first assault and was killed on the second attack by the same man.

New York, Sept. 18.—In the discovery of the body of a woman huddled underneath the rear stoop of a big tenement at 240 west 32rd street today, the police believed they have evidence of another murder. The victim whose name was unknown was about 30 years old and evidently in poor circumstances. The clothing was disarranged, her face bruised and there were marks of violence about the throat which aroused the suspicions of the police.

GET RICH GOVERNMENT CLERK

Arrest of Jas. W. Boyd for Embezzlement of $20,000.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Washington, Sept. 18.—James W. Boyd, a clerk in the public health and marine hospital service, was arrested today on a warrant charging him with embezzlement. The discovery of facts leading to the charge was made last Thursday in Boyd's absence and the amount abstracted will, according to Boyd, own confession, reach not less than $20,000. It was Boyd's duty to prepare bills for the approval of the surgeon general and when checks were signed they were delivered to him to be mailed to the persons for whom they were intended. It is charged that he manipulated the bills by erasing the dates, and amounts of duplicates left in the office, and that he secured the money on the checks by endorsing on the checks the names of the firm's to which they were issued. The alleged defalcation has been in progress for the past three years. Property belonging to Boyd valued at about $8,000 has been seized. Boyd was well known about town and especially so because of his pronounced fondness for automobiling. He was drawing a salary of $1,800 a year. Boyd waived a hearing and was held in $10,000 bail.

WARM WIRELETS.

A Russian squadron was sighted Sunday off Syong Chin, Korea. Its mission was to communicate the terms of the armistice to the Russian forces on the Tumen river.

The National Ginners' Association, with headquarters at Dallas, Texas, has ordered a report on cotton ginned up to September 25. An effort will be made to anticipate the regular government report which will be taken about that time.

Rain-in-the-Face who was one of the leading Sioux chiefs in the Custer massacre and is said to have personally killed General Custer, died at the Standing Rock Reservation, South Dakota, September 12. Rain-in-the-Face was 62 years old.

State Senator Eugene Blease, who killed Joe Ben Coleman, a dispensary official, at Saluda, S. C., September 2 was yesterday admitted to bail. The coroner's jury returned an indefinite verdict and Associate Justice Gary released the prisoner under a $3,000 default bond.

In the case of Mrs. E. T. Smith formerly of Brooklyn, N. Y., charged with the murder of her five year old boy in Manchester, Va., Judge Clopton yesterday in the Manchester corporation supreme court overruled the motion for a new trial and Mrs. Smith was resentenced to a term of five years in the penitentiary. The case will be appealed. Sheppard K. Smith, her husband, was discharged. When sentence was pronounced Mrs. Smith collpased.

In New York City yesterday more than a dozen passengers on a parlor car on a Boston express over the New York, New Haven and Hartford and Boston and Albany tracks, were injured when the car jumped the track in the New York Central tunnel at Fifty-Sixth street. The train, which left New York at noon, was going slowly when a defective switch threw the car off the tracks and against the iron pillars which tore away a portion of the front and side of the car. The passengers were taken back to the Grand Central station, cared for and then taken home or sent on their journeys.

ROOSEVELT DAY IN NEW ORLEANS

President Says He Will Visit the Fever Stricken City October 24th

LEAVES IT TO PEOPLE TO SAY

Yellow Fever Record in Crescent City To Date is 2,605 Cases and 341 Deaths—Condition in Country Alarming.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New Orleans, Sept. 18.—The following is the official report of the yellow fever record at New Orleans up to 6 P. M. today:

New cases today, 34.
Total cases to date, 2,605.
Deaths today, 6.
Total deaths to date, 341.
New diseases centres, 9.
Cases under treatment, 311.
Discharges, 1,953.

The number of new cases is especially low for Monday and is taken as an indication that the record for the next week or so will be pretty low. A glance at the map in the Marine Hospital Service office where each new case is marked every day shows that the disease is being rapidly eradicated from the upper districts, and this being so, Dr. White is arranging to consolidate some of the districts in that section of the city. There are several well known names contained in the new cases.

An important meeting of the railin Merrouge, Morehouse parish, near to extend over several days of this week, has been postponed owing to the quarantines.

Conferences were still in progress today in an effort to settle the cotton strike on the river front with fair prospects of success. Strong pressure has been brought to bear on both sides, business men and the whole community believing that owing to the yellow fever losses there should be mutual concessions so that the cotton movement, soon to start, may not be interrupted.

Serious in the Country.

The country situation is still of serious concern because of the appearance of the fever in localities far removed from the original sources of infection. The diagnosis of yellow fever in Merrouge, Moorehouse parish near the Arkansas border has been confirmed, and Dr. A. J. Thomas has been placed in charge by the State Board. The situation near Bayou Natchez, in Nachitoches parish, looks bad also and the charges that there are more cases there than have been reported makes it worse. Another new point of infection is Everett, in Berman parish, near the Texas border. This has not yet been determined officially though there is no doubt about it. The patient died and the body has been buried.

Better Outlook in Mississippi.

Jacksonville, Miss., Sept. 18.—Surgeon Wasdin of the Marine Hospital Service report that no new cases of yellow fever developed at any point on the gulf coast today. Only six patients are now under treatment. The entire week will be devoted to a campaign of fumigation. The summary for Mississippi is as follows:

Vicksburg, 2 new cases and 1 death. Total to date, 35; deaths, 5.

Natchez, 2 new cases, making a total of 32 to date.

Hamburg, one new case.

Insist on a Visit.

New Orleans, Sept. 19.—Today Mayor Behrman received a telegram from the President in regard to his forthcoming visit in October saying that he would come October 24th as previously arranged, or would defer to a later date. Tonight the committee in charge of the matter met, and afterwards the following telegram was sent:

"New Orleans, Sept. 18, 1905.

"Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, Oyster Bay, N. Y:

"I have the honor to acknowledge your telegram of this date and at a meting of the executive committee of citizens held this evening, at which Dr. J. W. White in charge of the United States Marine Hospital and Public Health Department here was present, it was requested to telegraph you that we are absolutely convinced that there is no risk attached to your visit on the date originally arranged, October 24 and we willingly assume the responsibility. Knowing full well your desire to honor us, we cordially reiterate our heartfelt invitation. As to the possibility of your entering Arkansas, after leaving here, we are at present uncertain, but have wired the authorities of that State, and will advise you shortly.

(Signed.) "MARTIN BEHRMAN,
"Mayor of the City of New Orleans."

President Roosevelt Will Go To New Orleans.

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 18.—President Roosevelt, who on Saturday last opened the Diamond Exposition given at New Orleans for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers today received from Mayor Behrman, of that city, the following telegram:

"Athletic Park, New Orleans,
September 16, 1905.

"Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, President Oyster Bay, N. Y.

"The people of New Orleans thanked you heartily for your expressions of sympathy and the help you are giving us. We are stamping out yellow fever and you are aiding us. Should you come to New Orleans our appreciation and feeling will be shown in the welcome we will give you. I write this as the sentiments of the 20,000 citizens who surround me, and of all the people of this city.

(Signed) "MARTIN BEHRMAN,
Mayor of New Orleans."

Replying to a suggestion in Mayor Behrman's dispatch, President Roosevelt this afternoon sent the following:

"Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 18, 1905.

"Hon Martin Behrman, Mayor of New Orleans:

"I thank you for your telegram of the 16th. Nothing has been closer to my heart this Summer than the welfare of the people of Louisiana and New Orleans, and each day the first information I have sought has been as to the progress made in fighting the scourge under which they have suffered.

"My trip to the South begins on the 18th of October. I had expected to arrive in New Orleans on Tuesday, October 24. If the people of Louisiana and New Orleans desire me to come at that time of course I shall come. If they desire me to come later I shall make a second trip for the express purpose of visiting Louisiana and Arkansas. I wish you to consider in the meantime simply the wishes of the people of Louisiana and New Orleans and also of course the question of quarantine regulations of other States in so far as they would be affected by my entering them after leaving Louisiana. I shall do whatever the people of New Orleans and Louisiana wish, subject only to the feeling of the other States on this quarantine matter.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."
(Signed.)

SOVEREIGN LODGE I. O. O. F.

Annual Communication Now Being Held In Philadelphia.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Philadelphia, Sept. 18.—Under weather conditions that were somewhta disappointing the annual communication of the sovereign lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was formally opened here today. There is an unusually large attendance of delegates and visitors and the adverse weather conditions did not in the least dampen their ardor. The central part of the city is decorated in honor of the Order and City hall is handsomely illuminated with incandescent electric lights.

The delegates and brother members put in a busy day. The formal opening of the conclave took place in the forenoon when public exercises were held in Lu Lu temple at which Mayor Weaver welcomed the visitors to the city. Later the sovereign lodge held a session at which the reports of officers were read. The reports that the order had a most prosperous year.

Te remainder of the day was taken up in prize drills by the military branch of the order, exemplification of degree work by visiting lodges, and receptions to prominent members of the organization.

WITTE IN EUROPE AGAIN.

Gives Czar Credit For Peace Terms at Portsmouth.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Plymouth, England, September 18.—The North German Lloyd Line steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II., from New York, September 12th, having on board M. Witte and colleagues, arrived here today. The Russians who were all in good health, went on to Cherbourg, where they will land this evening.

A number of reporters boarded the steamer, but M. Witte declined to be interviewed, except to reiterate that the recent rioting in Japan would not delay or interfere with the ratification of the peace treaty.

During the voyage a charity concert under the patronage of M. Witte was given on the Kaiser Wilhelm II. Replying to a toast to his health the Russian statesman said the credit for the work he had done at Portsmouth should be given to the Czar whose instrument he was and whose instructions he executed.

JAPANESE FRIENDLY TO US.

Assurances of Mikado's Government That Riots Weren't Anti-American.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Oyster Bay, Sept. 18.—Secretary Taft in a cablegram from Tokio has conveyed to the President the assurances of the Japanese government, given to him personally that the recent riots in Japan were not anti-American demonstrations. Secretary Taft says the rioting has subsided and that the members of his party have not been subjected to the least indignity. The dispatch concludes:

"I feel sure that any effort to create the impression that there is an anti-foreign demonstration or anti-American sentiment in the great body of the people of Japan is unjust. I hope that you will deem it wise to give publicity to this dispatch in justice to the Japanese government and people whose friendship for America and gratitude for the assistance which you rendered them in the matter of peace is abiding."

EXPELLED FOR HAZING.

Two Students From A. & M. College —Golden Key For Roosevelt.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 18.—Two students, one from Charlotte and the other from Jonesboro, were expelled to-day from the A. & M. College for "hazing." A few nights ago a number of students went to the room of a freshman named Weeks to haze him. Weeks barracaded his door. The would-be hazers attempted to batter down the door and threw lumps of coal through the windows. Weeks was struck on the head and seriously wounded. However, he successfully resisted the hazers but had to spend a day in the hospital. Investigation implicated the Charlotte and the Jonesboro students and they were expelled. The connection of several other students with the affair is going to be investigated.

The management of the State Fair is having made a very elaborate and handsome golden key to the city of Raleigh to be presented to President Roosevelt on the occasion of his visit to the State Fair October 19th.

An attempt was made to assassinate Sheriff Wyatt and Chief Deputy Joiner of Manatee county, Fla., Sunday night near Braidentown. The officers were riding along the road when a party of negroes fired upon them from ambush. Neither was hit. The officers returned the fire killing one negro. The other assailants escaped but are being pursued by a posse.

JUDGE PARKER HEARD FROM

Denouncing Campaign Contributions by Men Who Hold Money in Trust

NEW YORK LIFE NOT ALONE

Equitable and Mutual Gave Away Policy Holders' Money—Contribution of Corporate Funds Should Be Made Criminal Offense.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Esopus, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Former Chief Judge Alton B. Parker, last year the Democratic candidate for President of the United States, yesterday referred to the charges made by him in the Presidential campaign last Fall that corporation funds were being used in aid of the Republican campaign. To a correspondent of the Associated Press, who called at Rosemount, Judge Parker's home, and asked him if he had anything to say in relation to the statement made by Vice President George W. Perkins, of the New York Life Insurance Company, before the legislative committee investigating the insurance business, to the effect that President John A. McCall, of that company, had caused a contribution of about $50,000 to be made last year to the Republican national campaign fund, Judge Parker said:

"Yes," I believe I ought to say, now that there is no political excitement to distract the public attention, that the president of the New York Life was not the only such contributor. The officers of other great life insurance companies, such as the Equitable and the Mutual, also contributed from the policy holders' fund for campaign purposes last year.

"What has been proved in the case of the New York Life will undoubtedly be proved in the other cases. The facts exist, and honest and able counsel, backed by an honest committee, will undoubtedly bring them out for the public good.

"Were there an investigation of railroad, manufacturing, and other corporations, it would be found that these life insurance officers were not the only corporation officers who put their hands into the treasury and took out moneys belonging to widows and orphans to help secure a partisan triumph.

"That their acts were unlawful and their purposes corrupt goes without saying. They intended to have the money used, as it was, in corrupting the electorate. Mr. Perkins makes the point that Mr. John A. McCall, the president of the New York Life, is a Democrat. Apparently he would have the public assume that when Mr. McCall unlawfully and wrongfully contributed these funds—the company's share probably as a member of the underwriting syndicate—it was evidence of political virtue rather than misconduct.

"The truth about it is, and I say it without feeling, but emphatically, that men like McCall have no political convictions that stand in the way of their personal advantage. Such men desire the triumph of that party which will better serve their personal financial interests, and will—for contributions, past, present, and future—continue to protect these interests by lenient legislation and by pretense at execution of law which shall be tenderly blind to all their offenses. That party they espouse in the board room, and contribute to it of the moneys they hold in trust, and, occasionally, a little of their own.

"The underlying principles which divide the great mass of the people into parties have no effect upon such men. Their one inquiry is, Will the party organization in its hour of triumph remember our generosity and respond to our demands? Of course, the organization does remember, for it expects a similar contribution next time. And the expectation is not in vain. Last year was not the first time. Such contributions had been made before in national, State, and municipal elections.

"The officers responsible for these raids upon the treasuries of corporations have received their reward in unfettered management of different insurance corporations; in unembarrassed raids upon the public through trusts, condemned by both common and statute law; in refusal to punish criminally the officers of railroad and other corporations violating the laws, and in statutory permission to manufacturing corporations to levy tribute on the people.

"There can be no hope of checking the unlawful aggressions of officers of great corporations so long as they may thus form a quasi partnership with the organization of the dominant political party, for in the hour when the administrative official seeks to punish the offender, he is reminded by the head of the organization of the magnitude of the contributions of the corporation.

"There is, however, something worse, if possible, than the escape of such offenders from justice. It is the gradual demoralization of voters and the dulling of public conscience caused by the efforts to make these vast sums of money procure the ballots they were intended to procure, corruptly and otherwise.

"It is not my purpose to claim that the Democratic party, subjected to the temptations which have overcome the other party during the last few years, would have acted differently. Mere party advantage should not be sought from the disclosures made in this investigation. But the facts should be diligently sought, that the people may become so aroused that they will insist upon legislation making it a criminal offense for officers to contribute corporate funds for political purposes and depriving the apparently successful candidates of their offices.

"Efforts in that direction have been making in different States since November last, and particularly in this State. But the Republican organization would not consent to it, so the legislature defeated the bills. And the organization never will consent until an aroused public sentiment shall threaten legislators with political oblivion who fail to enact effective laws upon the subject."

RECKLESS DRIVING LAW.

Enforcement of Ordiance Passed During Former Administration.

The Mayor, throught the instrumentality of the police force, yesterday morning began a crusade against reckless driving down town, proceeding under an ordinance passed during the former administration, prohibiting vehicles to be driven faster than a walk over certain crossings where traffic is heaviest. The police were given their instructions in the morning, and by the hour of court at noon eight defendants, ranging from the humblest colored hack driver to the leading white citizen, were brought before the mayor, who gave them a warning as to the law and dismissed them upon "good behavior in the future."

The ordinance in question, which will be strictly enforced in the future is as follows:

"Be it ordained by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington, and it is hereby ordained by authority of the same:

"Section 1.—It shall be unlawful to drive, or otherwise cause any vehicle in going around a corner to go on or over the intersection of any of the following streets at a rate of speed greater than of an ordinary horse walk.

"The intersections to which this ordinance shall apply are Water and Princess streets, Front and Princess streets, Second and Princess streets, Water and Market streets, Front and Market streets, Second and Market streets, Front and Dock streets, Nutt and Grace streets, Front and Orange streets, and Front Street Market alley on north side of Market. The word "vehicles" herein includes automobiles.

"Section 2.—Any persons violating the provision of this ordinance shall be fined Five Dollars for each and every offence.

"Section 3.—This ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after its passage.

"Adopted and passed, this the 6th day of February, A. D., 1905."

THE LIGHT INFANTRY BAZAAR.

Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night—Call to Ladies—Baby Show.

At a very enthusiastic meeting of the joint committees at the armory last night, plans in detail for the elaborate bazaar to be given by the W. L. I. the first week in October, were gone over and the work assigned to each of the sub-committees. The Country Store contingent will proceed to "get busy" first, for it is proposed to make that institution a big feature of the fair. The committee or any member thereof will be glad to receive donations from the merchant friends of the company and the Star is authorized to say that any article from a clothes pin to a bale of cotton will be welcome.

The ladies have entered heartily into the movement to make the bazaar a success and to the end that that the effort may be general on the part of the lady friends of the soldier boys, all who are interested in the bazaar and will assist are requested to meet at the armory at 12 o'clock to-day. The committee finds it impractical to extend a personal invitation and expresses the hope that the notice through the public press will be sufficient to cause an outpouring of the gentler sex at the hour named.

Two added features of the bazaar will be a baby show in the assembly room on one of the evenings of the fair and the competitive drill for the company medal on another night. The baby show will take place in the assembly room of the armory and a small admission will be charged, each patron of the show to express his or her preference for the prize winner by voting at the door before retiring.

All the committees are now enthusiastically at work and a success seems assured. An order was forwarded yesterday for several thousand bags of confetti to add gaiety to the three nights of the bazaar.

Henderson Farmed Out.

Henderson Hayes has been farmed out! Everybody knows Henderson and his weakness for the "wine when it is red." He was before the Mayor yesterday for the 'steenth time, and the chief executive was puzled to know what to do with him. Every corrective method known to modern crimnology had been applied to the prisoner's case and the Mayor was about to throw up his hands in despair, when it occurred to him to call for bids for Henderson. This was not objectionable and a gentleman from Castle Haynes finally captured the prize (?). Henderson will work out a fine of $5 and costs with his lessee and then—he will come back to town and get drunk again.

Mr. N. Greenwald Dead.

Mr. Nathan Greenwald, for many years a resident of this city, died Sunday in Richmond, aged 86 years. The deceased is survived by the following children: Mrs. Bauers, Miss Miriam Greenwald, Mrs. B. B. Kahnweiler and Dr. Aaron Greenwald, of Richmond, Va.; Messrs. I. W. and Jacob Greenwald, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Henry Burnhild, of New York city; Mrs. J. I. Macks, of San Francisco, and Mr. Abraham Greenwald, who it is thought resides in New Orleans. The remains will be brought to Wilmington for interment.

New Bakery.

Mr. A. G. Warren, of E. Warren & Son, it is understood, has rented the store now occupied by the Cape Fear Cafe, next to Bellamy's drug store, on Front street, and will open a first-class bakery there in connection with his other extensive business interests on Market street, about October 1st. An experienced baker from the North, with competent assistants, has been employed.

—Thos. Smith and Bettie Johnson, both colored, were before the Mayor yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct and fighting at Twelfth and Market streets Saturday night. Officer W. R. Appleberry arrested the pair as they were breaking up housekeeping, and had smashed every article in the house, each to spite the other. The Mayor gave them 30 days each.

Salvation Army Arrival.

Major Simonson, an officer of high rank in the Salvation Army, who succeeds Adjutant Wiggins at this post, arrived yesterday from Baltimore, and held the first service at Front and Princess streets last night. He is a good singer, an enthusiastic worker, and his efforts here will not doubt greatly strengthen the local post.

FIELDS COMES TO-NIGHT.

Par Excellence Claimed for Production in Raleigh Saturday Night.

Al. G. Field's Greater Minstrels, which comes to the Academy this evening were in Raleigh Saturday night and in the course of nearly a column of praise of the company and its people, the News and Observer of Sunday says:

"Georgeous" is the only word that fittingly describes the presentation of modern minstrelsy last night by the Al. G. Field's Greater Minstrels at the Academy of Music. It was a performance worthy of superlatives, and it gave to delighted spectators an original melange, entitled "The Gridiron Club."

There was a great crowd present, and the house was thronged to the doors. It is a fact that if the splendor of the performance had been known there would not have been standing room, and in beauty and effect it is fair to say that Al. G. Field has never had a greater show in this circuit.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating," and judged by this test the popular approval, the applause and the after-show commendation given the performance are enough to warrant praise for it, even if it had not been seen. Having seen the splendid entertainment this writer is prepared to say that "all round" he has never seen an audience more generally pleased, nor heard more deserved applause at a minstrel performance.

The magnificence of the presentation was seen by the audience as the curtain arose, and a musical high ball was enjoyed. The scene was the corridor and banquet room of the Arlington Hotel in Washington and this was magnificent in its beauty of decorations, historic pictures and brilliant electrical effects. The performers in their rich and handsome costumes, many of these in cavalier effects, added to the beauty of the scene, which, as the music and song rippled forth, left nothing to be desired in artistic harmony and melody. The performance throughout was as brilliant as electric lights, and the performers are worthy of all praise. The magnificent parade which had attracted a great crowd on the streets was a fitting ante-room to the delights offered on the stage.
